CHRISTMAS ACTIVITIES & ATTRACTIONS

AN OLD-TIME CHRISTMAS AT SILVER DOLLAR CITY

Wednesday to Sunday, 10 am to 9 pm

399 Silver Dollar City Pkwy

We could talk for days about the spectacular display of lights, Broadway-style shows, comfort foods, and generally warm feelings one finds at Silver Dollar City's "An Old Time Christmas" celebration.

Proclaimed the "most illuminated park on Earth," the theme park will be adorned with over 6.5 million lights this year with the addition of the "Christmas in Midtown Light Spectacular." The 2022 festival runs Sat. Nov. 5 (with a special "white glove" charity preview event on Nov. 4) through Dec. 30.

AMERICA'S CHRISTMAS TREE CITY TOUR

Area businesses and residents are teaming together to make Branson "America's Christmas Tree City." Launched in 2016, the Branson Christmas Tree Tour will allow you to see and visit over 100 of the area's largest, most interesting, colorful, and unique Christmas tree displays. You'll find traditional evergreens adorned in lights, tinsel, and ornaments, dancing trees of lights, naturally growing trees ablaze in color, and creative trees made from life jackets, racing flags, library books, and more. Visit DiscoverBranson.com for the full list of locations.

VISIT OR EAT BREAKFAST WITH SANTA

There are multiple venues hosting one of Santa's helpers all season long. Some even offer special Breakfast with Santa opportunities.

DRIVE-THROUGH LIGHT DISPLAYS

Three immersive drive-through light displays welcome guests from dusk until late night: Let There Be Lights at Promised Land Zoo, Branson's Lights of Joy, and The Trail of Lights at Shepherd of the Hills. Visit DiscoverBranson.com for dates, times of operation, and prices.

BRANSON VIP HOLIDAY LIGHTS COACH TOUR

The Branson VIP Holiday Lights coach tour takes you through two light displays, a view of the Branson-lit nativity scene, and ends with hot chocolate and treats from the Backstage Cafe at the historic Branson Hotel.

SNOW TUBING AT WOLFE MOUNTAIN

Every day (except Thursdays) from 9 am to 5 pm; Closed on Thursdays
2339 US-65, Walnut Shade

Looking for a winter activity that is sure to be a blast? Then head to Wolfe Mountain for some snow tubing! Wolfe Mountain is Snowflex synthetic hill for year-round snow tubing fun. It is nestled in the natural beauty of the Ozark Mountains, just a few miles north of the city along Highway 65. The 400-foot-long slope allows up to six tubes to run simultaneously and is open to all ages.

CHRISTMAS ON THE SHOWBOAT BRANSON BELLE

Show schedules vary and are subject to change
4800 W. Hwy 165

Cruise aboard the Showboat Branson Belle and enjoy a three-course meal, live entertainment, and stunning views of Table Rock Lake. Visit DiscoverBranson.com to book tickets.

BRANSON FERRIS WHEEL & ICE SKATING

Monday to Sunday, 10 am to 12 am

3335 W 76 Country Blvd

The Branson Ferris Wheel runs its “Electrify Christmas” light display multiple times each night throughout the holiday season. It’s the same 150-foot attraction that was housed at Chicago’s Navy Pier for the past two decades. It was moved, refurbished, and reopened in Branson in 2016. In addition to offering rides for up to 240 passengers on its 40 gondolas, the wheel is equipped with 16,000 LED lights to create a dazzling light show after dark. There is also a 7,200-square-foot ice rink near the Ferris wheel that opens on November 12 November through at least New Year’s Day. This is the only place to skate on REAL ice in Branson.

TITANIC MUSEUM

Monday to Sunday, 9 am to 6 pm

3235 W 76 Country Blvd

The Titanic Museum Attraction is more than a museum—it’s an unforgettable experience. Once you step inside the ship you will climb the grand staircase, meet the crew and become a passenger of the Titanic. Prepare to interact with artifacts and displays, hear stories and sounds from additional passengers and experience history. The interior is decorated for the holiday season and on Thanksgiving weekend the exterior is often adorned in the light of 1,500 luminaries (also known as festival lights). Before you leave, step outside the ship’s walls to take your picture with a real iceberg and feel the 28-degree water.

WORLD'S LARGEST TOY MUSEUM

Monday to Saturday, 10 am to 5 pm

3609 W 76 Country Blvd

Explore displays of more than a million toys, dating from the 1800s to the present.

THE POLAR EXPRESS TRAIN RIDE

Train ride schedules vary and are subject to change

Branson Scenic Railway, 206 E. Main

Immerse yourself in the 1985 classic holiday story as you ride aboard the Polar Express on the Branson Scenic Railway. The train ride includes a reading of the story, sounds and carols from the motion picture soundtrack, and complimentary hot cocoa and cookies. Polar Express tickets often sell out very early, so make reservations as soon as possible.

LIVE REINDEER AT PROMISE LAND ZOO

Monday to Sunday, 10 am to 4 pm

2751 Shepherd of the Hills Expy

Pet, feed and take photos with Sven, Rudolph, Prancer, and all your other favorite reindeer at Branson's Promised Land Zoo, home to the region's only reindeer herd. A petting zoo featuring live nativity animals, Christmas shops, and a two-mile drive-through light display are also part of the Zoo's Christmas season offerings.

WINTER WONDERLANDING AT BRANSON LANDING

The Branson Landing's many shops and restaurants adorn themselves in holiday lights and decorations, while iconic silver reindeer sculptures welcome guests at the entrance, and a 63-foot state-of-the-art LED animated Christmas tree serves as the central attraction in Town Square. Come watch the fountains dance to a variety of choreographed musical numbers every 15 minutes. Santa also sets up residency in Town Square from early November through Christmas Eve.

ADORATION SCENE/ LIGHTED NATIVITY ABOVE BRANSON LANDING

Sitting atop the bluff overlooking Lake Taneycomo and Branson Landing, the Branson Adoration Scene dates back to 1949. That's when businessman Joe Todd met with artist Steve Miller at a Downtown Branson cafe to sketch their plans to honor the Christ child with a large Christmas card-style display. The scene was rebuilt in 2012 and stands 28 feet tall, where it can be seen from miles away. The annual lighting of the area's largest nativity scene precedes the Branson Adoration Parade on Dec. 4, 2022.

MIRACLE OF CHRISTMAS AT SIGHT & SOUND THEATER

Schedules vary and are subject to change

1001 Shepherd of the Hills Expy

For 46 years people from all over the world have been coming to Sight & Sound to experience the Bible coming to life on stage. The Miracle of Christmas show is a breathtaking musical portrayal of the journey of Mary and Joseph and the miraculous birth of Jesus. The production features majestic flying angels, live and animatronic animals, spectacular sets, stunning special effects, and a soaring musical score. Since this show doesn't appear every year, it's an absolute must-see for the 2022 Branson Christmas season. Miracle of Christmas tickets is on sale now. Be sure to make reservations early as many shows sell out in advance.

LIVE CHRISTMAS SHOWS

Schedules vary and are subject to change

Known for its many performance theaters, Branson offers a show for all types and tastes during the Christmas season. Some of our favorite Christmas shows include Dolly Parton's Stampede, the Hughes Brothers Christmas Show, Rhonda Vincent's Christmas in Branson, The Haygoods, as well as the Broadway-style production of A Dickens' Christmas Carol at Silver Dollar City. Contact Discover Branson for tickets.

GINGERBREAD HOUSES AT CHATEAU ON THE LAKE

415 N State Hwy 265

From early November through the end of the holiday season, the lobby at Chateau on the Lake transforms into a candy lover's paradise with the creation and display of a mouth-watering gingerbread village. The (mostly) edible village stands more than three feet tall and includes four storefronts, two houses, and a church. The ingredient list includes over 330 pounds of powdered sugar, 120 pounds of egg whites, and 600 pounds of candy, cookies, pretzels, Pop-Tarts, and more. While at Chateau, also check out the beautiful nativity scene (a twin of the set featured in Home Alone) just around the corner from the village, and catch a glimpse of Santa sliding in from the rafters!

CHRISTMAS AT BIG CEDAR LODGE

190 Top of the Rock Rd, Ridgedale

Big Cedar Lodge offers a variety of Christmas activities for hotel guests and visitors. The main lobby is beautifully decorated and features a moving train set circling a scale model of the property. Activities include wreath and ornament making, gingerbread house decorating, holiday wagon light tours and carriage rides, snowman ice cream socials, elf tuck-ins, breakfast with Santa, and more. An outdoor tree lighting ceremony takes place in early December. They also have a new skating rink open from mid-November through early January. The rink is made of synthetic "Xtraice" material so it's useable even on the warmest days. Some activities are open to hotel guests only and/or require additional reservations and fees.

BRANSON CHRISTMAS PARADES

Branson and other cities in the surrounding area host community parades each season. Contact Discover Branson for dates and details.

CHRISTMAS AT THE BUTTERFLY PALACE

Monday to Sunday, 9 am to 5 pm
4106 W 76 Country Blvd

The Butterfly Palace gives you the chance to see over 1,000 live butterflies, with over 50 different species from across the world in the facility's botanical garden. At Christmastime, enjoy a special display of live butterflies, live holiday music, the living angel statue, and more.

BRANSON MARKET DAYS (NOVEMBER 2-20)

Monday to Sunday, 10 am to 8 pm

This pop-up market at the Branson Hilton Convention Center will feature food trucks and concessions, unique Christmas shopping items from over 175 vendors, and gift wrapping services. Admission is $5, and kids age 5 and under are free.

BRANSON FESTIVAL OF TREES (NOVEMBER 2-28)

Monday to Sunday, 10 am to 8 pm

Visit the Branson Landing to view and purchase elaborate trees and wreaths decorated by local businesses, all benefitting Christian Action Ministries, operators of Taney County food pantries and mobile food outreach programs. Special musical performances are planned on select Saturdays.
